

Rusty Nail fire studied

FEB 28 1982

PA 20

NORTH BRUNSWICK — Officials of the Township Fire Prevention Bureau reported yesterday that an investigation is continuing into the cause of a blaze which broke out Friday in a house on the Rusty Nail restaurant property on Route 130.

Although the fire forced the Rusty Nail to be evacuated as a precaution, the restaurant was open for business as usual later Friday afternoon, according to manager Chris Peterson. Dishwashers at the Rusty Nail live in the house.